Plans For Big Halloween Fete Are Completed

Children to Gather at Six O'Clock Saturday Night for Parade

Children taking part in the big costume parade that is a feature of Antioch's annual Halloween party Saturday night are being asked to be at the Grade school at 6 o'clock sharp. The parade will start at 6:30 p. m.

Children who are not at the school in time to be assigned their place in the parade will "fall in" with the others at the Antioch theater, where they will all be guests of Fred B. Swanson, manager, at a showing of "Dixie."

Each grade will march as a unit in the parade, accompanied by its teacher. Music for the marchers is being arranged under the charge of Hans von Holwede.

Four prizes will be given to each grade—a first and second prize for boys and a first and second prize for girls.

Pres-school children will be awarded four prizes without regard for sex. Lions Furnish Prizes

The Antioch Lions club is donating $25.00 for the prizes and candy for the children which is to be given by the village board.

The Halloween party, now in its tenth year, is sponsored by the Antioch Grade school, Antioch News and Antioch theater, with the general cooperation of the community.

Lions Hear Of Conservation Dept. Work

Motion Pictures on Wild-fowl Are Shown at Dinner Meeting

Several sportsmen availed themselves of the opportunity to attend the meeting of the Antioch Lions club Monday evening at Pregener's resort, at which motion pictures on the work of the Illinois Conservation department were shown.

A home-style chicken dinner was served at 7 o'clock.

Two new members, John P. Miller and Harry J. Krueger, were accepted into the organization during the business period.

The committee in charge of furnishing prizes for the annual Halloween party for the children of the village reported that the sum of $25 is being turned over for that purpose.

Plans were discussed for a dance to be sponsored by the Lions Nov. 20. In token of respect for the late John B. (Bernie) Fields, who was an active member of the Antioch Lions, a moment of silence was observed before opening the meeting.

Livingston Osborne, director of the conservation department, described the department's work and some of its future plans.

He then introduced Conservation Officer Ben Bellrose, one of 30 members of the department who are attending a conservation officers' school being conducted at Lake Villa.

Bellrose, who is considered an authority on waterfowl, showed moving pictures dealing with this subject.

Commence Jam and Jelly Rationing Oct. 31

Rationing of jams, jellies, preserves and fruit spreads will commence Sunday, Oct. 31, following an eight-day retail "freeze" period imposed by the Office of Price Administration at midnight Friday.

They will be rationed on the processed food stamps. Commencing Oct. 31, they may be bought on blue stamps X, Y and Z, in Ration Book Two, good until Nov. 20. On Nov. 1, green stamps A, B, and C, good through Dec. 20, may also be used.

Housewives will not be asked to declare stocks, and ration stamps will not be removed for supplies now on hand in homes, it is stated.

The demand for fruit spreads was accelerated by the butter shortage. The production outlook for 1943-pack jams and jellies meanwhile dropped about 50,000,000 pounds annually under the present curtailed buying rate. Stamp No. 29 in Ration Book 4 will become valid for 5 pounds of sugar Nov. 1.

Business Houses Close For J. B. Fields Rites

Antioch business establishments were closed from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. Monday afternoon in tribute to the memory of the late John B. (Bernie) Fields, for whom final services were held in the Strang Funeral home with the Rev. A. D. McKay of St. Ignace Episcopal church officiating. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

Fields died last Thursday morning at St. Therese hospital, where he had been taken for an operation.

Funeral arrangements were delayed pending the arrival of his son, Jack, from Newberry college, S. C., where he is taking a Navy V-12 training course.

News of the Boys in Service

Editor's Note: While not all changes of address are commented on in the News of the Boys column, those sent to the American Legion post, Attention John Moran, or to the Antioch News office are immediately entered in the Legion files and on the mailing list. All co-operation received in keeping the lists up-to-date is greatly appreciated.

"The people are very nice to us and the scenery is beautiful, but we'll be glad to get back to the United States, as there's no place like home," Cpl. Allen D. Hanke sounds a slightly wistful note from "somewhere in England."

Pfc. Joseph Pachay drops us a line—"After graduating from the B24 school at Keesler Field, I have been transferred to the Alamogordo air base. This base is situated in very dry country which is surrounded by mountains. The sun shines every day and there is seldom a cloud to be seen. . . This is the 'wide open spaces' for sure. The Antioch News is going to be even more welcome than in the past, as this post is not over-run with newboys."

Capt. A. P. Bratrude (MC) has been transferred from Camp Van Dorn, Miss., to McCloskey General hospital, Temple, Texas.

Stanley Runyard, SK 2/c, writes to his mother, Mrs. Nell Runyard, that he saw his grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Dorey, in London recently. He says that Mrs. Dorey, who was here visiting her daughter for three months in 1929, was considerably surprised over the changes in her grandson since that time.

A/c Orville R. Winfield, who is taking advanced training at Lubbock Field, Texas, says, "It gets so cold at night it's hard to get enough clothes on to go out to reveille in the morning, and by mid-afternoon you start cussing the heat. . . I hope to get home after graduation. It sure would feel good to walk down Main street after being away for nearly a year."

Pvt. Edward C. Dunford is now getting his mail via New York APO.

Pvt. Robert J. Dressel is now stationed at San Diego, Calif.

T/3 Edgar Simonsen, who has just been graduated from the Fort Crook Ordnance Automotive school in Nebraska, was here on furlough for two weeks. He returned to duty last week-end.

Robert E. Story, CM 3c, has been here from one of the Navy's east-coast stations on a 10-day leave.

Pfc. Don Homan has been here from California on furlough, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Homan, at Channel Lake.

Cpl. Henry Pape writes via San Francisco APO—"I have received copies of the News over here and they sure bring the old home town a lot closer. I would like to thank all the people who are responsible for getting the paper to us 'G. I.'s' out here.

"I met Al Vykutra and Horton out on the coast just before I left the States, and we had a gab fest."

Carl O. Gilbert, CM 1c, is now getting his mail via San Francisco Fleet P. O. Carl Zimmerman of Lake Villa informs the News.

The twenty-first annual United States Navy day, Wednesday, Oct. 27, was the occasion for impressive observances at Great Lakes.

Charles Ackerman has just received a couple of copies of the Antioch News.

Public Service Co. Will Open Antioch Office

Nov. 1 Has Been Set as Opening Date, Dist. Supt. Joedicke Says

As a wartime convenience for gas and electric users in the Antioch area, the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois will open a service office at 900 Main street, Antioch, on Nov. 1, it was announced today by George W. Joedicke, district superintendent. The office is conveniently located for all residents of the Antioch district. Customers may exchange burned-out lamp bulbs, pay gas and electric bills, leave appliances to be repaired, and transact any other business with the company at the new office.

Mrs. Dibble in Charge
Mrs. Howard Dibble, whose husband was employed by the company at Lake Villa prior to joining the armed forces, will be in charge of the new office. She is thoroughly familiar with the company's war-time programs on care and use of appliances, lighting, fuses, conservation, and other electric and gas services. She has just returned from a visit with her husband who is now stationed at Providence, Rhode Island. Complete supplies of booklets covering such wartime ideas for homemakers as menus, meal planning, and other wartime advisory services will be available to the public at all times. The new office, which has received the enthusiastic endorsement of local business men, will be open daily from 8 to 12 a. m. and 1 to 5 p. m.

Awards for 4-H Projects Will Be Presented Nov. 20

Antioch and Lake Villa Girls Are Included in Honor Roll

Certificates, premiums and awards earned by 4-H club members for their work during the past months will be presented at the final Achievement program for this year, to be held in the Libertyville High School auditorium Saturday evening, Nov. 20.

Club members' handbooks were scored and county honor members were selected at a meeting held by 32 4-H club leaders in the Lake County Home Bureau office in Grayslake Sept. 29.

Keep On Backing the Attack With War Bonds

Dr. Jensen To Conduct Dairy Diseases School

Vocational Agriculture Instructors to Attend Session Here Oct 30

A one-day special school devoted to the study of dairy cattle diseases will be conducted at Antioch Township High school Saturday, Oct. 30.

The school will have Dr. G. W. Jensen, Antioch veterinarian, as instructor, and will be held for the benefit of the Vocational Agriculture instructors from the various high schools throughout northeastern Illinois.

The course, arranged by C. L. Kuttil, instructor at Antioch High, is one of many being sponsored by the University of Illinois.

Dr. Jensen will cover such diseases as Bangs, mastitis, milk fever, calving troubles, and nutritional diseases.

A field trip to the Ravenscroft farms to study disease control methods will be a part of the course, which will start at 9:30 a. m.

Schools Apply For Aid In Milk, Lunch Programs

Antioch High and Grade Schools Are Among 38 in County Applying

Antioch Township High school and Antioch Grade school are among the 38 schools in Lake county that have applied for federal and state assistance in their hot lunch or milk for students' programs for the ensuing school year.

Lake Villa, Grayslake, Wadsworth, Oakland, Browe, Gavin, Big Hollow, Spaulding, Libertyville grade, Roundout, Hawthorn, Mundelein, Diamond Lake, Ivanhoe, Fox Lake, Beach, Zion grade and Highwood, North Chicago and Waukegan grade schools are the others.

Supplies 1/2 Requirements

Schools installing the "complete meal" program under the federal and state aid plan will receive nine cents per student each day from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, while the state will pay a total of two and one-half cents on the same basis. This plan, which will provide half of the day's nutritive requirements for each child, is being favored in most of the schools in the county.

The complete meal provides for the serving of a pint of whole milk, two ounces of meat or fish, or one egg, or two ounces of cheese, or one-half cup of dried peas, beans, or soy beans, or four tablespoons of peanut butter; also one cup of vegetables or fruit or one-half cup of each; one or more slices of bread or muffins or other hot breads made of whole grain or enriched flour or cereal, also two teaspoons of butter or oleomargarine with added vitamin A. The federal government will cut its contribution to seven cents and the state to one cent if milk is not served.

An alternative hot lunch program provides for a less adequate meal but still retains the one pint of milk a day provision. The federal government will pay 6 cents and the state one cent under this plan. If milk is not served, the federal allotment is cut to four cents while the state contribution remains at one cent.

Where only one pint of milk is served each day the federal government will contribute two cents and the state one cent per student.

Antioch High school's program is for the serving of hot lunches. The grade school program is for the milk only.

Antioch Opens Waste Paper Salvage Drive

Nov. 13 Is Set as "Curb Pick-Up Day," Director States

The need for waste paper by the war industries is so urgent at the present time that a special call has been received here by C. L. Kuttil, Antioch's Salvage director, asking him to make every effort to get all waste paper together in a drive where all citizens are asked to co-operate.

Here Are Instructions:
1. Paper may be of three kinds (cardboard, magazines, and newspaper) and each should be tied in bundles separately.

2. Bundles may be brought to and left at the barn in the rear of the Antioch High school.

3. Anyone having large amounts may call 296 and request a truck to pick up their paper.

4. Finally, on Saturday, Nov. 13, a truck will travel all Antioch streets and pick up all waste paper that has been placed at the curb in front of the homes. Business men in the downtown district, not wishing to place their paper in front of their place of business may call 296 and make arrangements for alley pick-up on or before Nov. 13.

"It is hoped that every one will co-operate in this great job and that Antioch will again go over the top as it did in the scrap metal drive a year ago," says Kuttil.

Money realized from the proceeds of the sale of the paper will be used to swell the funds of the World War II Service Men's Relief Fund.

Several organizations at Antioch High and Grade schools are also co-operating in this big drive.

Register 2,875 For No. 4 Ration Book In Antioch

A final check-up at the close of rationing registration for Book No. 4 at the Antioch Grade School last week revealed that 2,875 books had been issued from Tuesday through Friday.

The highest reported total from previous registrations was 2,700.

It is believed that some of the increase has been due to the fact that a greater number of summer residents have made their cottages into year-around homes. Defense workers from Lake shore towns have also been seeking homes in this vicinity and may have helped to increase the total.

Miss Lehmann's Will To Benefit Peacock Camp And Allendale

Peacock Camp for Crippled Children, on Grand avenue a mile east of Highway 21, will receive $4,500 from the estate of the late Miss Augusta E. Lehmann of Lake Villa, and the Allendale association, which operates the Allendale Farm, west of Lake Villa, will receive $5,000.

They are two of the 17 charitable institutions chosen under the terms of Miss Lehmann's will to receive portions of her estate, which was evaluated at $1,991,879.

Miss Lehmann was a daughter of E. J. Lehmann, founder of the Fair store in Chicago.

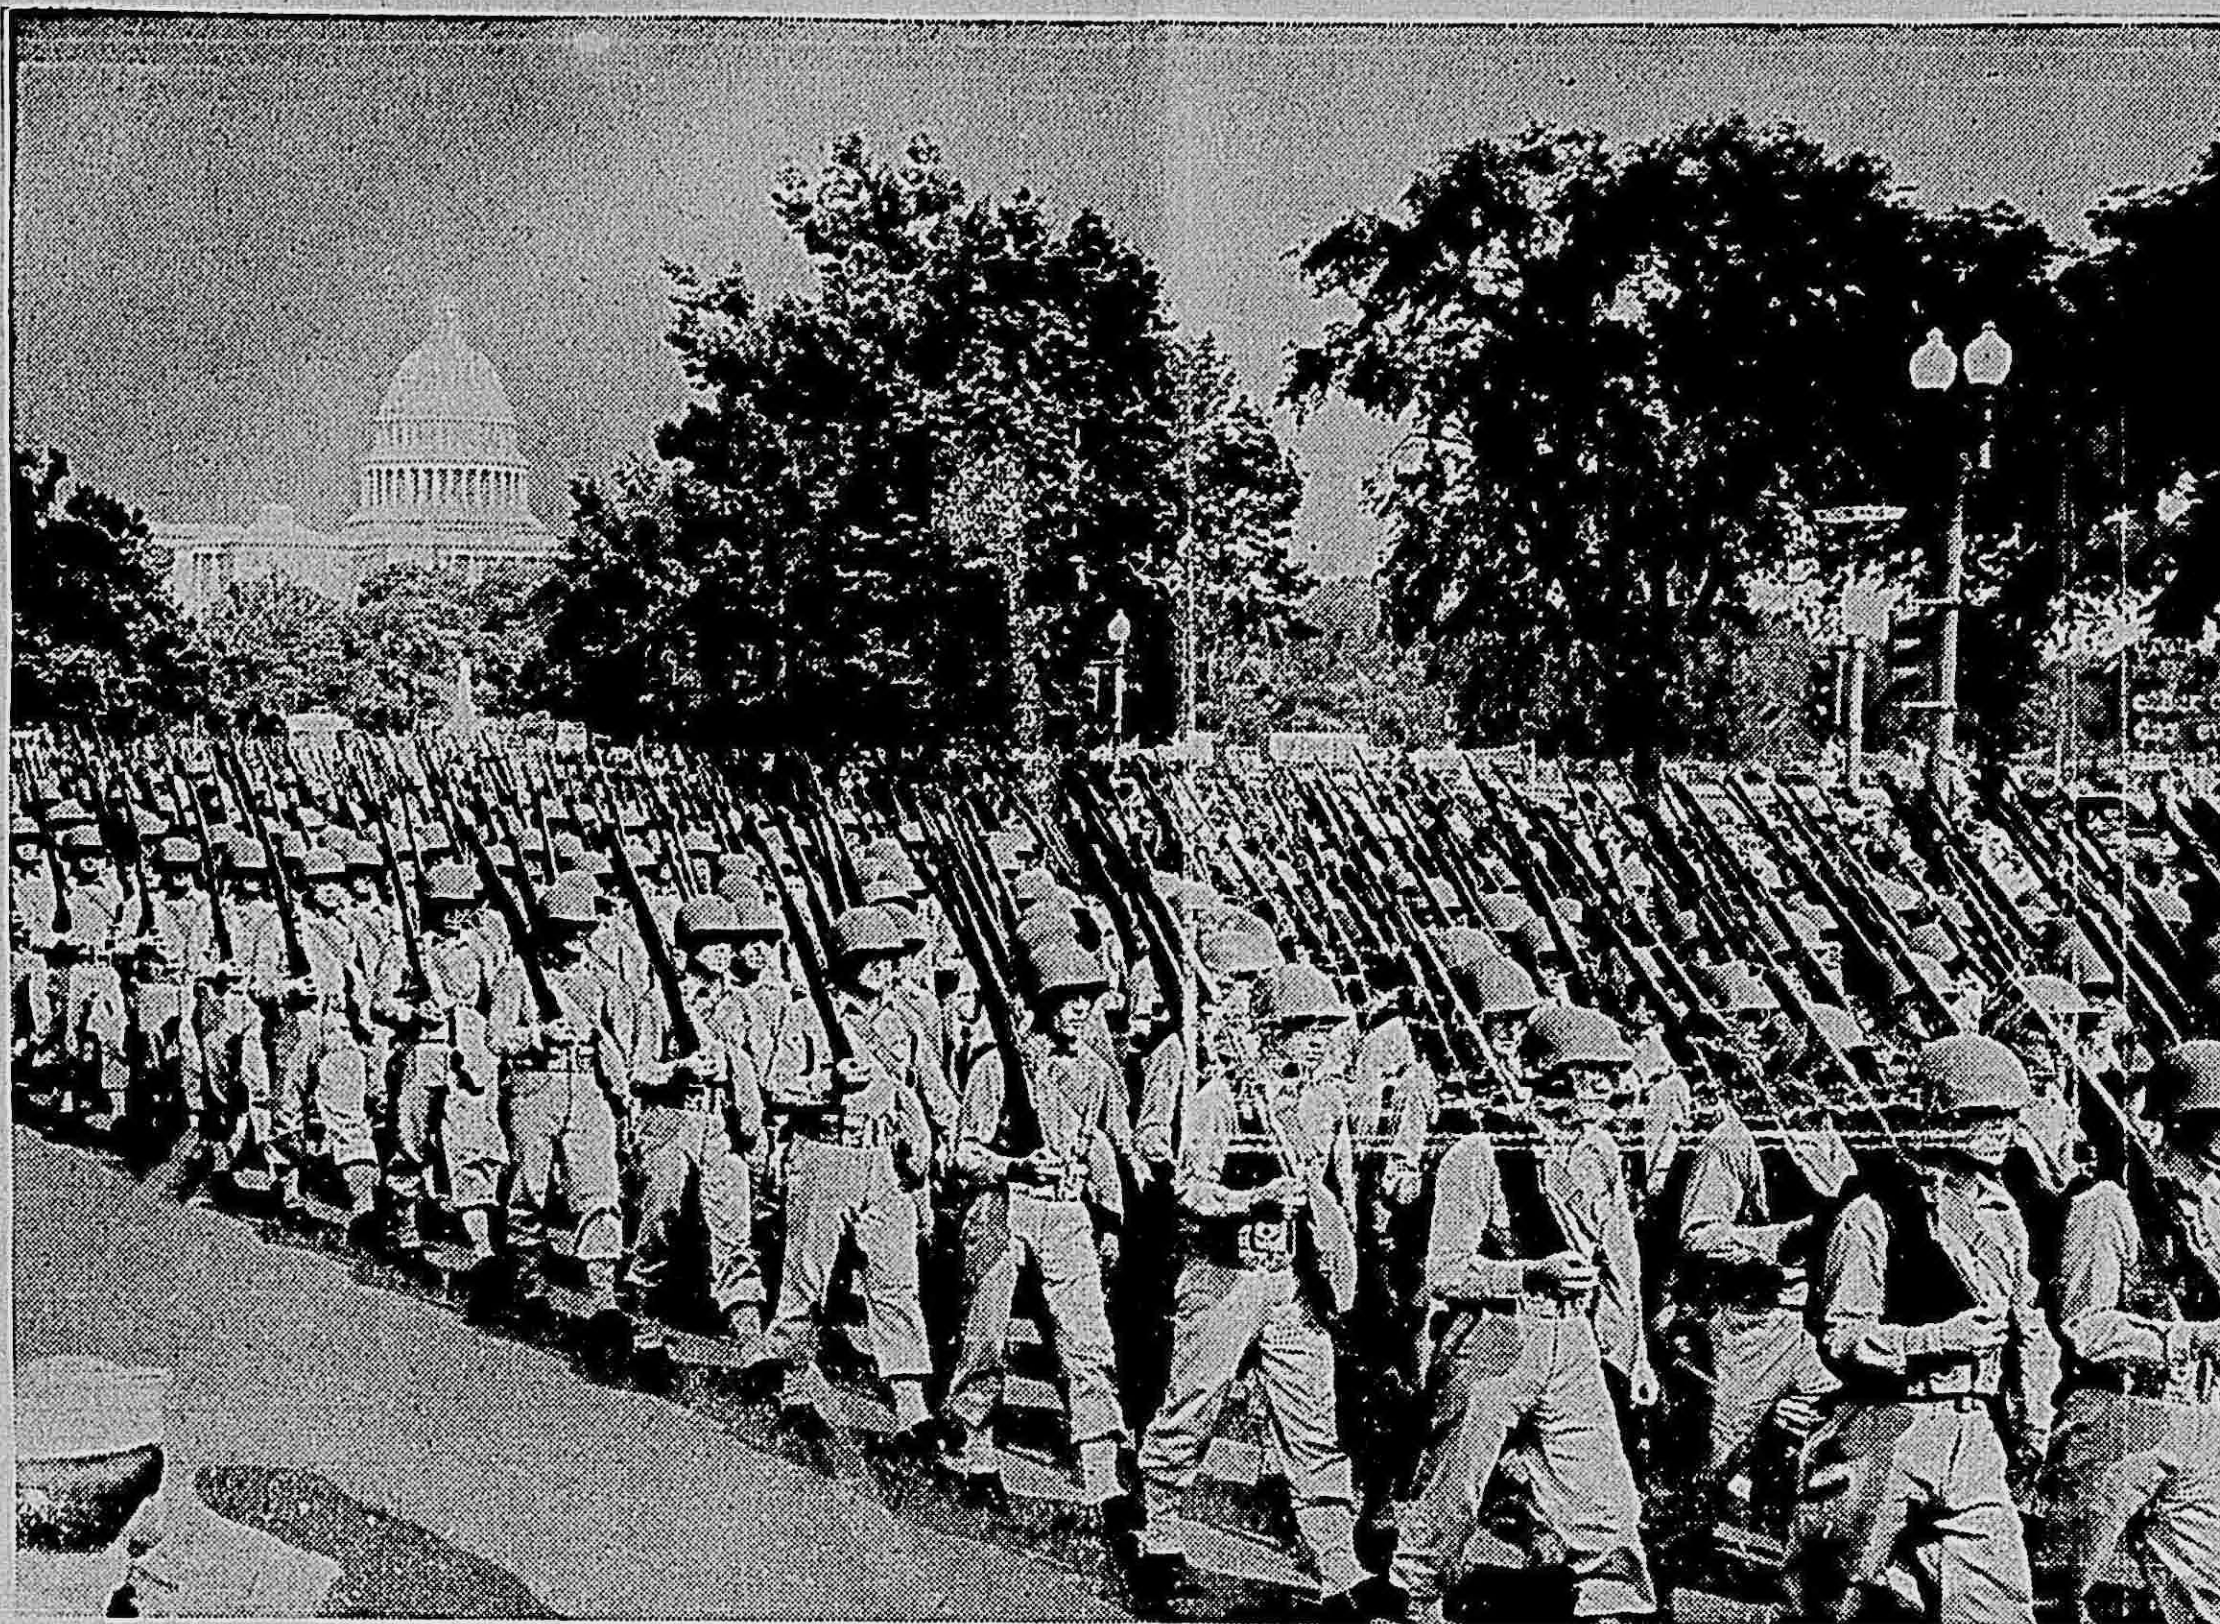

She died Jan. 2, 1942. Survivors include her brothers, Edward J. Lehmann and Otto J. Lehmann, Lake Villa, and a sister, Mrs. Benjamin L. Behr, Lake Forest.

"Bulls for Bonds" Is Guernsey Breeder Slogan

Edwin C. Welch, Little Orchard Farm, Antioch, is offering to sell some of his Guernsey bulls and accept Series E War bonds at full maturity value in payment. Through this patriotic program this Guernsey breeder is offering other breeders and dairymen the opportunity to secure bulls of superior heredity at a cost of only seventy-five cents on the dollar.

This is part of a nation-wide campaign instigated by The American Guernsey Cattle Club. An interesting booklet telling about the plan and listing the hundreds of breeders offering bulls on this basis is available from the national office of the Guernsey club at Peterborough, N. H.

Back up Your Boy—and OUR Boys—with War Bonds!

AMERICA'S on the march. And in the ranks is your boy, or the boy of a friend of yours, or someone you know.

You want to give these boys everything you've got—so that they can give the Axis everything they've got.

How can you do this?

You can forget "buying as usual." Sure, maybe there'll be scarcities. But we're all in the same boat—and the quicker we win, the sooner those scarcities will disappear.

You can keep the boys from coming back to a country where the price of living has gone sky-high because of inflation—by putting ten per cent of your salary every week into War Bonds.

Listen. When you can really put that money to use, it'll be there—with interest. It'll be there with interest any time you really need it during the next nine years and ten months. And the interest—don't lose sight of that—is 2.9 per cent. Where else are you going to get a return like that?

The banks would love to buy these bonds—it's more interest than they can get. But these War Bonds are for you and only for you.

Meanwhile—while they're protecting you against want, against inflation, against the future—they're building bombers and tanks and ships and everything we need to get this war won fast.

When you've bought a bond—and when you're buying regularly—when you're thinking war in everything you do and doing everything you can to win it, you can look a soldier or a sailor or a marine straight in the eye and say, "Brother, I'm fighting, too!"

5 Reasons Why

1. By investing in War Bonds you help provide the planes, the tanks, the guns and the ships we must have to survive and conquer.

2. You prove that you are a patriotic American.

3. You aid the morale of our fighting men, by showing them that the entire Nation is behind them.

4. You prove to our enemies that we are a United People.

5. You protect your own financial future, as every $18.75 you invest in a War Bond brings you back $25 in 10 years. You make the world's safest investment, by buying a share in the world's most powerful country.

News of the Boys

och News that have been to North Africa and back. They were wrapped around a cane or staff of gnarled wood, sent to him by S/Sgt. James Moran. Moran described the iron-pointed souvenir as "a relic of the old days. Some Arab might have carried it climbing the mountains."

Two young men from this vicinity were formally started on their way as aviation cadets in the army air forces last week when they were sworn into the service, according to information received here this week from the Army Aviation Cadet board in Chicago.

They are: Thomas Willis Brett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Brett, Grapevine avenue, Channel Lake. He was graduated from Antioch Township High school, where he participated in basketball, baseball and tennis, winning three major letters. His hobbies include model airplane building, swimming, golfing, football, baseball and basketball. His cousin, George Brett, commands a fleet in the Pacific.

Theodore William Schmitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore A. Schmitz, Antioch, is also a graduate of Antioch High, and was active in boxing, tennis, football and baseball, playing on the "varsity" teams in the two latter sports. In addition to athletics, including skating and golf, he is interested in the building of gas model planes.

Sgt. Richard A. Thill is spending a 15-day furlough from Tucson, Ariz., visiting his mother, Mrs. Bernice C. Thill, of San Diego, Calif., after which he will leave for McCook, Neb. He is a gunner in the air forces.

His brother, Cadet William E. Thill, was moved last week from Massachusetts State college to Nashville, Tenn., where he is attending pre-flight school.

The Thills are from Lake Villa, where Mrs. Thill was a house mother at Allendale Farm.

Word has been received by his wife that Walter P. Simonsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Simonsen of Antioch, has been promoted to First Class Shipfitter. He enlisted in the Navy last December, and has been in the Pacific theater of action for the past couple of months.

John Fenn writes from New Orleans, La., to say that he has been receiving training in fire fighting at the E. A. U. T. C. Engineer Aviation Unit Training center, and that he is looking forward to spending his furlough with members of his family soon. He adds, "I would like to congratulate Herman Rosing on his being elected president of the Antioch fire department. They sure are 'on the ball.'"

Christmas parcels for soldiers who have left home stations en route overseas after September 30 may be mailed as late as December 10, it was announced today by Major General H. S. Aurdand, Commanding General of the Sixth Service Command, with headquarters here.

The new deadline has been set for the benefit of persons who receive official change of address notification subsequent to September 30. The reason for the separate provision, it was explained by Major Kenneth H. Donnelly, Sixth Service Command Postal Officer, is that relatives and friends of soldiers being shipped now would have expected the soldiers still to be in this country at Christmas time and would not have sent parcels in time for the regular October 15 deadline for overseas mailing.

The change of address notification must be presented by the sender when the package is mailed, Major Donnelly said. The same limitations on weight and size placed on packages mailed before October 15 will hold for those mailed before the December 10 deadline. Packages may not be more than 15 inches in length or 36 inches in length and girth combined, and they may not weigh more than five pounds.

One other restriction on the delayed mailing is that only one parcel can be sent from one person to any one individual with an overseas A. P. O. address.

Capt. A. N. Berke, (M. C.) has been transferred from Camp Howze, Tex., to Harmon General Hospital, Long View, Texas.

John W. Nelson, Lake Villa, is now in foreign service.

"Although I spent only the summer in the vicinity of Antioch (Peoria lake, to be exact), I feel very close to Antioch and its people. I say that I've seen more of this world and its people than I ever did in civilian life," writes Pfc. F. C. Fenn, who is serving in the Pacific regions with a Marine detachment.

Ray D. Hughes, who is serving with the armed forces at Camp Bland, Florida, has been promoted to sergeant.

An Army dog bites a tent, it was a publicity stunt. In the service command it is a sign of a brave man at work.

H. S. Class Visits Museum of Science

(By Judy Pregenzer)

Last Saturday the chemistry class met outside of King's at the early hour of seven for a trip to Chicago.

We drove to Waukegan and took the North Shore from there. Everyone was half asleep on the train, but when we reached that nice, fresh, clean-smelling air (ugh!) of the City, we all woke up.

The Museum of Science and Industries was our main objective and first stop. It was really fascinating. The best part of it is that you can push buttons and make the different things work yourself.

They have an old fashioned movie, a place where you can hear how you sound over a telephone, and a wonderful working model of an oil refinery. It starts out black, sticky oil and after going through all different kinds of pipes, filters, and so forth, it comes out beautiful gas! I can't begin to tell of all the things in the Museum. It would take a week to really see everything. It's wonderful.

After the Museum we went back to the Loop. And guess how? The subway. We don't know, but we think we were the first Antioch people to ride in it. The observatory of the Board of Trade Building was our next stop. There is another place we could stay all day, but we didn't have all day. It was almost four now so we went over to the Navy Show, which was just as exciting and new to us as all the rest. You would never dream until you saw them that the planes, guns, shells, and such are as big as they are.

We had a busy day. One that we would like to repeat. We certainly "got educated."

All kinds of made into padded suits to be worn by trainers while aggravating trained Army dogs, according to Major A. T. Gheen, salvage and reclamation officer of the Sixth Service command with headquarters in Chicago. The suit, made of salvaged materials, costs about $25, in contrast with the $150 price for ready-made suits, Major Gheen said.

A real, old-fashioned American Christmas for every man and woman in uniform stationed in the Western Hemisphere is what USO hopes to make possible this year, according to Dr. Royal H. Burpee, overseas program director. To accomplish this aim, USO is already shipping traditional Christmas decorations to all USO clubs outside the continental United States.

Cadet Milton Smith is home this week on a 10-day furlough from Newberry college, S. C., visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Savage.

OBSERVER

G. G. Bothum of "Woodhaven" on Curtis road up Bristol way was in to buy a few "No Hunting" signs the other day. G. G. says a couple of windows were smashed, and there were bullet holes through the wall of one bedroom and through another wall into another bedroom. A couple of bullets were on the floor. G. G. is pretty sure someone was doing some shooting around the place... even if there wasn't anyone in the house at the time.

Along with type lice and other afflictions that fall to the lot of the printer, we been sufferin' from a few headaches due to type "pi." In plain words, folks, we spilled a little type last wk. and got it all mixed up—and didn't have time to re-set it or straighten it out. So that's what happened to Mrs. C. B. Hamlin's Lake Villa news. She got it in to us all-right. But us—ouch!—we even hate to think of it!

We're going to start suit ag'in' the soap artists. They put some highly artistic drawings on the window at one of the service stations, and all we got was scribbling. If ya gotta soap our windows, take time to make 'em pretty.

Shooting from Highway Brings Hunter $32 Fine

George Fink, Evanston, was fined $32 and costs for shooting a red squirrel from a tree in the yard of the George White farm at Bean Hill last Thursday. Fink was reported to be standing on the highway when he fired at the squirrel.

Justice of the Peace Harry Hoyt of Waukegan, before whom he appeared Friday, called attention to the state game laws which make the shooting of game from a highway a misdemeanor.

Several complaints are said to have been made to the Lake county sheriff's office of late concerning the shooting of game from automobiles on highways.

Grade School News

Grades 4 and 5

The Friday morning program was planned by Joseph Francis and Pat Quilty.

The following numbers were enjoyed:

Song, "America"; Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag; Song, "Comin' In on a Wing and a Prayer," Jean Harden and Sue Garland; song, "Roving Cowboy," Kenneth Rentner and Robert Lubkeman; impersonation of "Rochester," Eddie Bluhm; jokes, Sue Scott.

Several of our pupils were ill last week.

Two pupils, Mary Curnes and Arthur Doty, are leaving. Arthur has returned to Chicago and Mary has gone to Arizona with her father for the winter.

Seventh Grade
The seventh grade is publishing the first issue of the school newspaper. This will be sent to all persons in the armed forces who graduated from the school.

Bob Simon is editor; June Hunter, assistant editor; Annabelle Barthel, literary editor; Jane Hunter, Girls' sports editor; Ted Poulos, boys' sports editor; Jim Phillips, humor editor; Verna Kufalk is in charge of "Can You Imagine?" column; Bob Scott, room news; Shirley Miller, cartoonist.

The seventh graders have also started making posters for the Red Cross. These will be used in U. S. O. centers at Thanksgiving time.

General News
The sixth grade teacher, Mrs. Bartlett, left last Thursday to visit her husband in Texas.

The teachers of the Antioch Grade school attended the teachers' meeting in Evanston Monday.

The grade school children are back in their regular schedule of classes after several days' "vacation" due to registration for rationing being held at the school.

The clothesline-and-pulley arrangement that used to be handy for folks living in the south flat of the Brogan building to hang out their wash on doesn't run there any more. The leaning-tower-of-Pisa shed to which it was attached at one end was torn down by a crew of workmen Tuesday afternoon. They carefully removed the clothesline first.

It's the Monotony... They do things alphabetically at the Altus, Okla., army flying school, assigning to each instructor five cadets whose names begin with the same letter as his own.

Impressed, Lt. Smith called over Lt. Anne M. Smith, the field's first Wac arrival, and the whole lot of them had their picture taken with the group's training plane, "The Village Smithy."

The photographer was Tech. Sgt. James R. Smith.

The lights of Diogenes—famed seeker of an honest man—never shone as brightly as the eyes of a Kenton O., boy war-worker recently when he opened a package from a soldier in North Africa, who returned a wallet he had lost while making tanks.

James Chamberlain, 19, who worked in the Lima, O., Tank Depot for four months, missed his wallet in April. Realizing that he had probably lost it in a now-sealed tank, he gave the wallet up for lost along with $4.00 and some personal papers it contained.

It was with surprised pleasure, therefore, that Chamberlain received the package containing the wallet along with a friendly letter from Pvt. Roy Blair of the North African Ordnance company, who explained how the wallet had been found while examining tanks received from the Lima Tank Depot.

"Keep 'em rolling—we need 'em," Blair wrote in his letter to Chamberlain. The soldier also asked the Lima war worker if he had ever expected to see his wallet again.

We see by the papers where the Burlington fire department was called out to the Andrew Koenen farm there a week ago Mon. night when a haystack out in a field caught fire. It is believed that pheasant hunters started the blaze with a lighted cigarette or match. Two other farmers west of Burlington reported the burning of corn shocks in the fields. In the interests of war-time conservation, we are gonna express the hope that hunters will observe rules of caution with matches and cigarette butts as well as with firearms while hunting... so they'll get a warm welcome next year, instead of a hot one. Folks who wouldn't think of flinging a lighted match at gasoline are often astonished at what happens when they drop one in some dry leaves, hay or cornstalks.

A survey of war workers shows that women war workers do not eat as well as men workers—at least that's what the article received from Washington says. What the guys who did the survey forgot to take into consideration was, that the men depend on "the little woman" at home to fix their lunches and see that they eat the right kind of food—but when the little woman enters war work, she generally has to look out for her own meals.

We see where a woman's magazine has an angle on the reluctance of women to enter war work that ain't bin touched on yet—in fact, has been avoided like a super-hot-potato, so far as we can observe. That is the angle that when a housewife goes into the factory she doesn't exchange her home duties for a man's job—she just takes over an additional job... which is a fair amount of work for one person to handle, particularly in the case of families with children. Our modest suggestion is that quite a few organizations and concerns seem to be getting the right idea and approaching the help problem in a realistic way when, instead of spouting about "drafting" women, they offer them part-time jobs. Quite a lot of women—and men, too—can add a little extra time to their working day in the interests of the war effort—but running a home and an outside job, too, is really "something."

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Jap Forces Smashed in Sea and Air As Allies Pound Main Supply Bases; Germans Fall Back to Massico Ridge; Higher Dependency Allotments Fixed

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

U. S. army engineers clear path through ruins of a large town in southern Italy, where bitter fighting has raged along the road to Rome. Picture shows streets piled high with rubble against a background of blackened and hollow buildings, stripped to skeletons by bombings.

ITALY: Tough Going

Rooted from their Volturno river line, the Nazis fell back on prepared positions along the Massico ridge, 2,500 feet high. Following their usual tactics, the Germans were expected to hold out until the Allies take the time to concentrate superior numbers along the different points in the mountains to overpower the rugged outposts. When driven from Massico ridge, the Nazis were expected to retire to the Garigliano river, some eight miles distant. Behind the Garigliano river, it was thought they might make a stand in the mountains, which dip almost into the sea in this sector.

Although the Nazis' action is of a delaying nature, it involves bitter fighting, since German artillery planted on the mountain sides can fire down on Allied forces fighting their way up, and Nazi machine guns and mortar batteries can hide in the rugged country and spray U. S. and British soldiers crawling forward in the open.

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC: New Fight

Following Gen. Douglas MacArthur's grand strategy of capturing the peak of the enemy in a certain area by knocking out the main base from which it operates, Allied aircraft pounded the big Jap supply center of Rabaul on New Britain island.

Once the main point for Jap troops in the central area of the Solomons and New Guinea, Rabaul has lost much of its strategic importance with the enemy's surrender of these territories. Rabaul still is being used to supply the Japs in the northern areas of the Solomons and New Guinea, and as a base for enemy shipping and aircraft, can endanger any Allied move northward.

Concentrating on Rabaul, Allied bombers sank more than 100 vessels lying in the harbor, and destroyed more than 200 aircraft.

Striking close to Japan's home waters, U. S. B-29s have sunk 96 more enemy merchant ships, to bring to 400 the total bogged.

DRAFT

Propose New Allotments

Wages of American servicemen would continue to receive $50 monthly from the government, but payments for support of children would be raised to $50 for the first child and $20 for all others, according to new dependency allotments established in congressional bills.

Under the present system, wives receive $50 monthly, but only $12 is paid for the first child and $10 for every other one. The new allotments also would boost payments in most cases to collateral dependents, such as parents, grandchildren, brothers or sisters. Payment to one parent for child support, for instance, would be $50 monthly instead of the current rate of $37.

Under the new bills, regular dependency allowances would be paid to the husbands and children of the WACS or WAVES if they relied on them for child support. The government would make the whole of the first monthly payment instead of waiting for the soldier's contribution of $25, and payments would be expanded to include the top three enlisted grades in addition to the present four lowest.

U. S. PLANES: Production Lags

Because of changes in models, engine shortages, labor needs, faulty distribution of raw materials and plant reorganizations, American aircraft production for 1943 will fall below President Roosevelt's announced goal of 125,000 planes, the Office of War Information said. War Production board officials have cut estimates of output to 90,000.

In reviewing the aircraft program, OWI noted that the period of experimentation has passed, with the result that production is now being concentrated on proven models. Engine improvements have given American fighter planes increased speed and climb, while developments in armor and gunnery have added to the strength of heavy bombers. Daring even the famed flying Fortress, a new long-range bomber capable of carrying heavier loads will soon make its appearance.

JAPAN: Expand Industry

Japan has moved for maximum industrialization of East Asia as part of her program to meet the Allies' impending onslaught on her rambling empire.

By recent order, the famous business house of Mitsubishi was directed to double the capital of its subsidiaries, with the Japanese government itself putting in 50 per cent of the new money.

Further, Mitsubishi's shipbuilding, steel and aircraft industries are to be reorganized, with vital plants moved to China and Manchuria to escape Allied bombing. The other 10 financial houses which share their rule over Japanese business with Mitsubishi are also expected to come under close government control.

FOOD: 1944 Outlook

Although food production in 1944 will probably equal or even exceed this year's, civilian supplies may be smaller, the Bureau of agricultural economics reported. Military lend-lease and other government requirements will more than offset any increase, it was said.

Supplies of cereals, chickens, eggs, fresh fruits and vegetables, potatoes, dried beans and peas should be as plentiful as this year, the bureau declared, with greater enrichment of bread and flour promising more iron and B vitamins.

However, shorter supplies of meats and dairy products are in prospect, the bureau reported, with a resultant decrease in calories, protein and calcium. Stocks of fats and oils should equal this year's production, it was said.

Happy Meeting

Reunited, the couple decided to serve Uncle Sam as husband and wife, and they exchanged their romance by marriage, which made Pvt. Elliott the first WAC to be wedded in the European theater of war.

CATTLE: Less Slaughter

Because cattle slaughter for the first nine months of 1943 dropped to 7,962,000 head from the 9,061,000 killed during the same period last year, 100 million pounds less beef have been produced.

During the first few weeks of October, however, cattle slaughter showed an increase over preceding months, with 400,000 head killed. On October 19, 20 major markets received 200,000 cattle for a record run, with Kansas City receipts of 57,000 setting an all-time mark.

According to reports, many thin, grass-fed cattle were finding their way to the stockyards instead of to the feed lots of the Midwest's corn belt. Prime fed cattle were selling only slightly below the July peak.

WAR BONDS

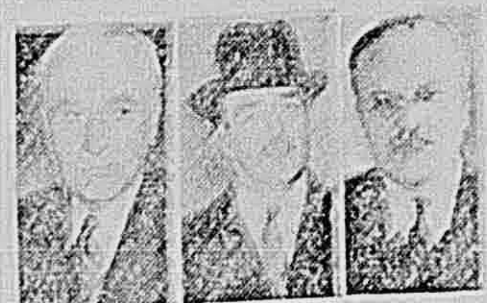

Final tabulations reveal that the 15-billion-dollar Third War Loan was oversubscribed by nearly four billions. Of the $19,913,000,000 worth of bonds sold, $5,377,000,000 was taken by individuals. The popular "Series E" bonds account for $2,472,000,000 of this great sum.

Treasury officials are gratified at the response, because it was the intention to market this issue among individuals, estates and business corporations to as large an extent as possible.

ALLIES MEET: Talk in Moscow

Sweeping down over Moscow, two brown Liberator bombers finally came to rest on the Russian capital's chief airfield. From the planes stepped American Secretary of State Cordell Hull and British Foreign Minister Anthony Eden. Waiting to greet them was Russian Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov.

Although the officials were expected to discuss the possibility of the U. S. and Britain opening a second front in France, it was anticipated that the chief consideration would revolve around re-establishment of European boundaries after the war, with emphasis on Russia's claim to the Baltic states and parts of Finland, Poland and Rumania.

Meanwhile a new four-nation agreement signed in London, pledges the U. S., Britain and Canada to increase supplies to Russia this winter to help her avert famine and carry on the war against Germany.

Dnieper Battle Rages

The Russian struggle on the Dnieper River continued in violence as the Nazis poured more troops across the broad waterway and the Nazis pushed reinforcements to bolster their battle line.

Although apparently successful in maintaining their line in the north, the Germans found the going tough in the central and southern sectors. The Russians were successful in shifting their attacks from one point to another and keeping the Nazis off balance.

These tactics were evident in the Kiev, Melitopol and Kremenchuk regions. After being held near Kiev, the Reds switched their attack to Melitopol to the south. When the Germans rushed reinforcements to the area, the Russians then shifted to heavy attacks on Kremenchuk to the north.

OL' MAN RIVER: Back in Business

America's inland waterway system—once a principal artery for transportation and freight—has come back into its own in World War II.

Addressing the 25th annual Mississippi Valley association convention in St. Louis, Mo., Defense Transportation Director Joseph Eastman declared America's inland waterways will carry 127 billion commodities of freight in 1943, a tonnage being the movement of a ton one mile.

With 95 per cent of the freight on the Mississippi consisting of essential material, Eastman said the river's system embraces 5,000 barges from 100 to 3,000 tons in capacity, and 1,000 towboats from 200 to 2,500 horsepower. Last year, Eastman revealed, 10 1/2 billion ton-miles of freight were carried over the system.

The waterway system has been moving record loads despite a decrease in facilities because of the transfer of many Great Lakes and inland carriers to ocean service.

HIGHLIGHTS . . . in the week's news

ARMS: The United States is supplying arms, equipment and food to 52 fronts, the senate naval committee reveals. Some of it was said are as much as "17,000 miles from the point of origin."

SPAN: Exiled Spanish Loyalists will form a "government in exile" possibly in Mexico, according to a statement by Diego Barrio, ex-president of the republic.

FIRE: Losses resulting from fires during September since 1932, and 20 per cent higher than the same month last year, the National Board of Fire Underwriters announced. Losses amounted to $20,100,000.

WRITER: Paris newspapers report the death of Roman Rolland, 75, a French writer and winner of the Nobel peace award.

Behind the scenes of shell production

In this modern war production plant 37 mm. steel cartridge cases are being turned out in vast quantities with the aid of efficient electrical operations. Electric conveyors provide a steady flow of parts and a progressional movement through the various steps of processing. The draws (stretching operations) are made in huge electrically operated presses. The annealing is done in an accurately controlled continuous electric furnace, conveyorized salt bath and conveyor type oven. The finish is applied by an automatic spray machine and is baked in an infra-red oven.

In this war plant, just as in thousands of others throughout Northern Illinois, Electric Power is the vital source of energy... the dynamic force that puts more production into every hour.

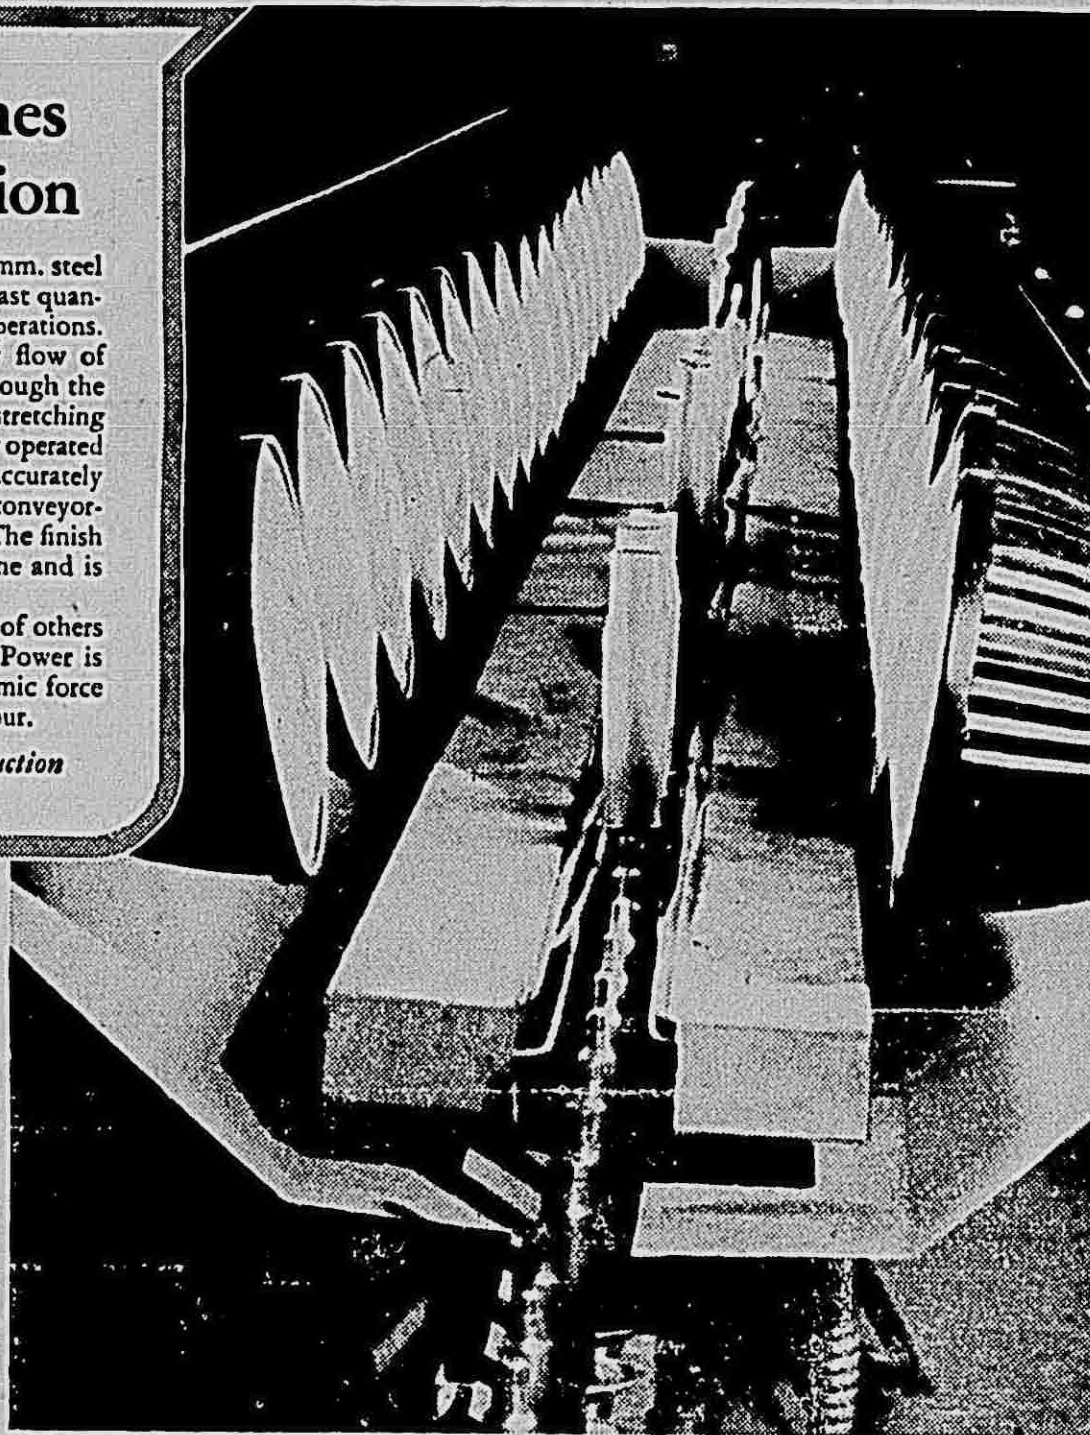

Electric Power Speeds War Production

The small, thick cups have been annealed in the controlled atmosphere furnace and are ready for the first draw (stretching process). They'll roll down to the presses at the rear.

Cases move past the spray gun, placed so that each casing is covered completely. Here one has been covered and others are awaiting the spray.

Because of its compactness, efficiency and ease of operation, the infra-red battery of lamps is used in baking the finish on shell casings. Casings have been removed from the foreground to show the calorids which heat the bottom of the shells.

Draws are made in these big electrically driven presses. Drawn shells are pushed up to the conveyor by a hydraulic ram, and the conveyor carries them to the wash and furnace.

Internal spraying is the function of this electrical machine. The girl puts the shell over the revolving tube and the paint sprays into it. She does two at a time.

Electricity has gone to war — don't waste it!
